BERLIN, July 7.—Counselor von Bethmann-Hollweg today stated the new American note will probably be handed to Ambassador Gerard on Saturday.
NEW YORK, July 8.—The liner Adriatic, reported marked for submarine, has entered the war zone.
ATHENS, July 7.—Constantinople advices today say the Turkish losses in the Dardanelles total 180,000.
LONDON, July 7.—The French Red Cross today announces that French casualties up to June 1 totals 1,400,000. Three hundred thousand have been killed.

BRYAN RESIGNATION NEARLY HALTED PEACE CONCLAVE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Mrs. May Wright Sewell, director of the Women's Peace Conference, now in session here, declared today that the resignation of Secretary of State W. J. Bryan, following so soon after the sinking of the Lusitania, almost made it impossible to hold the conference.
Many peace delegates, she said, sent her letters saying she must take their names from the program.
"Since the sinking of the Lusitania," wrote one, "I have war in my heart."
Bryan will be introduced to the conference at tonight's session.

REPORT GERMAN SUBMARINE FLEET TO DARDANELLES

BERLIN, July 7.—A dispatch just received here from Athens states that the commanders of the allied Dardanelles fleet are alarmed over the rumor that seven German submarines have entered the Dardanelles.
If this report is true, the Athens correspondent believes it will force the fleet to cease operations and leave the land troops unsupported.

MIGHTY SMASH AGAINST THE FRENCH, TEUTON PLAN

PARIS, July 7.—The Germans are apparently planning a mighty smash against the French in the Alsace region.
The new offensive concentration is proceeding slowly, but it is believed the Gallician troops will soon join the armies in the Vosges district.
It is reported the Germans are at work on a definite program which is intended to isolate the Russians in Galicia, followed by a smash at Warsaw, and then an attempt to drive the French from Alsace, a peace proposal to follow this.
French military experts declare the Germans cannot drive the French out of Alsace as the defenses there are far stronger than those north of Arras.

KING EMMANUEL SEES ARMY CAPTURE AUSTRIAN POST

ROME, July 7.—The Italian forces are today assaulting Goritz, and shells from their heavy guns have practically reduced the defenses.
King Emmanuel yesterday personally witnessed the capture by his troops of Orcein Peak, near Sels. In this attack 700 Austrians were captured.

GERMANS BOMBARD ARRAS, DESTROY CATHEDRAL

BERLIN, July 7.—It is announced the Germans have bombarded Arras and fired and destroyed the cathedral because the French troops were concentrated there.
The British have captured the German trenches north of Ypres, but were later driven out.
The Germans have captured a mile of French trenches in Apremont forest.

BLANKET INDICTMENTS OUT FOR NEUTRALITY VIOLATIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—It is believed that secret indictments have already been returned against the British recruiters and German neutrality violators. District Attorney Preston refused to affirm or deny today. It is thought likely blanket indictments have been filed and defendants are being quietly arrested. The German case involves the steamship Sacramento, which, it is alleged, took mu-

Nasty Men! How Dare They Smoke? Well, this City Ma Will Fix Them

LOS ANGELES, July 7.—Mrs. Estelle Lawton Lindsey is a councilman—or a councilwoman, if the latter word sounds any more euphonious in your ears.
Also Mrs. Lindsey has some ideas all her own as to how a city council chamber should be run.
Not long after her election to the council Mrs. Lindsey made a momentous discovery. There was no mirror in the council chamber. Mrs. Lindsey couldn't tell if her hat was on straight or not, and this interfered appreciably with her performance of her legitimate duties.
Mrs. Lindsey—pardon, Councilwoman Lindsey—demanded a mirror. She got it.
Now Mrs. Lindsey objects to the smell of tobacco smoke. She doesn't exactly think she can forbid her colleagues to smoke. But she has announced that she will burn incense as a matter of self-protection if the councilmen persist in producing large volumes of smoke.
Councilwoman Lindsey was spokesman—spokeswoman—for her colleagues today in pledging the councilman-and-womanic support to Mayor Sebastian.
Mrs. Lindsey has been named on several committees.

10000 CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS GATHER TODAY: 6000 MORE TOMORROW

CHICAGO, July 7.—Ten thousand delegates are today gathered in this city for the opening of the fiftieth anniversary of the Christian Endeavor Convention tonight. Six thousand additional delegates are expected to reach the city by tomorrow.
This is the first time in nineteen years this convention has been held on the American continent. The last convocation was held in Agra, India.
German Endeavorers, it is learned, have refused to send delegates to the convention, charging that the society is American and pro-British.
Secretary Lehman, in his annual report, will show that the society has 80,000 separate branch societies, with 4,000,000 members throughout the world.
These members and branches represent eighty-seven church denominations and sixty different languages.

INDIA ON VERGE REVOLT, SAYS SPEAKER

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—J. Misrow, of Calcutta, India, addressing the International Press congress, said India was on the verge of revolt likely to disrupt the British empire. He declared the removal of troops paved the way.

GIVE BAIL ON CHARGE OF NEUTRALITY VIOLATION

PORTLAND, July 7.—Joco Macanovich, representative of the king of Montenegro, and P. M. Lubrich, his private secretary, arrested on a charge of recruiting Montenegrins here, today gave certified checks for $20,000 bail. Both denied violating neutrality. They said they toured the country urging Montenegrin reservists to join the colors.

WAR SPEAKER OVERCOME AS HE TALKS TO MEETING

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Editor Mark Cohen of the Evening Star of Dunedin, New Zealand, said today Great Britain expected America to take care of Belgium. He said Great Britain was engaged in financing the war and unable to relieve Belgian sufferings. Cohen is attending the International Press Congress.

Aaron Watson of the London Times, representing Lord Northcliffe, was the single British representative. He said: "I am the only Englishman here. No need to tell you why. The very thought that all my fellow workers are in the trenches makes it impossible for me to speak to you."
Emotion so affected Watson that he had to leave the rostrum.

Despite the chairman's plea for neutrality, representatives of each belligerent nation insisted on defending their country's course, giving their own version of war events.

AIR, LAND, SEA BATTLE IS WAGED; ALLIES WIN

PARIS, July 7.—The British and French have defeated the Turks and Germans in a tremendous air, land and sea battle in the Dardanelles, it is officially announced today.
The Turks began the attack Monday. Turkish battleships entered the straits and shelled the allies' trenches. The Turks' Asiatic fortresses devel-

GIRL DODGES AUTO; AUTO DODGES GIRL; RESULT: GIRL HURT

Miss Helen Miller of Orange Run Over by Machine Driven by Riversider

With Miss Helen Miller trying to get out of the way of an auto, and the auto doing its very best to miss Miss Miller, the plaza circle at Orange came very near being the scene of a fatality yesterday afternoon. Miss Miller was knocked down and two wheels of the automobile passed over her. While she was severely bruised the girl escaped with no bones broken.

Miss Miller is bookkeeper and stenographer at the office of the Orange Daily News. Her agility in explaining to subscribers why the new carrier boy came to miss them was of no service to her when she was attempting to cross the street east of the plaza yesterday.

Miss Miller saw the auto coming. In it were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Green and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Chase, all of Riversiders, Green doing the driving. Green saw Miss Miller. Miss Miller started back toward the sidewalk. At the same instant Green started to swing around her. Miss Miller saw the move, and started forward. By that time the auto had changed its course. Miss Miller tried to back-track. The auto took another dodge, and—

Just then the hesitation waltz came to an end. The machine struck the girl. Both wheels on one side passed over her between the ankles and the knees.

The girl was taken into a physician's office. A few minutes later she was able to walk to an automobile, and was taken home. Today she is at her home, much the worse for bruises, but not seriously hurt.

MULE'S WHIM MAY BRING ADDED RICHES TO A MILLIONAIRE

DALLAS, Tex., July 7.—This yarn—a true one—is about a millionaire with enough coin to choke the Loosac tunnel, and a plain, ordinary old mule, "Maud's Brother."

The millionaire is Col. E. H. R. Green, who owns a few railroads, some land and other more or less valuable goods of this world, including "Maud's Brother." The colonel wanted to drill for oil at Cash, Tex. Being a gentleman with a strain of sporting blood in his system, the colonel decided to let "Maud's Brother" determine where to start the first drill.
The gentleman mule was turned loose, and where he stopped to graze, the drill was made. If the colonel strikes it rich, "Maud's Brother" gets a pension—and should worry.

BATTLE REPORTED RAGING NEAR PAREDON

LAREDO, Tex., July 7.—It is reported Carranzaistas and Villistas are in the midst of a battle raging near Paredon. Four hundred Carranzaistas have been killed, it is said, and the casualties total 2000.

TWO YOUTHS JAILED, ALLEGED FIREBUGS

STOCKTON, July 7.—Charles Suhr, aged 17, son of H. D. Suhr, imprisoned in San Quentin in connection with the Wheatland hop field riots, was today arrested on suspicion of being concerned in an epidemic of phosphorus incendiary fires in the Fair Oaks section. Charles Hughes, a chum, was jailed on a similar charge.

EVELYN THAW IS TO BE ATTACHED COMPELLED TO TAKE STAND TO TESTIFY

NEW YORK, July 7.—Justice Hendricks today announced that he would at once issue a writ for body attachment against Evelyn Thaw to compel her to testify in the Thaw sanity trial. He refuses to accept her ill health plea.

Thaw is expected to testify this afternoon.

The wife of the man who is again making a strong legal effort to escape incarceration in the Matteawan Asylum as a lunatic, was recently found hiding in a bungalow in the far northern part of New York state, while the trial of her husband is going on in New York City. Her young son, Russell, is with her in her seclusion.

The deputy attorney general of New York, who is trying the case against Thaw, made efforts to find the wife that he might place her on the stand as a witness against her husband. However, newspapermen found her long before the state's officials even learned where she was. They discovered she was so near the Canadian border that she could easily cross and escape a process server, should she desire to do so.

Mrs. Thaw is in fear of her husband. She believes he will do her bodily harm should he be liberated. She says all his effort will be directed to have her leave the stage, and that her life will "be a hell on earth" if he gets out.

WONG YAK PINCHED AS HE BURNS OPIUM

LOS ANGELES, July 7.—Government inspectors today raided Wong Yak's room in Ferguson alley and claim they found a hundred dollars' worth of opium burning in a brazier. They assert Wong heard the raiders approaching and threw the drug into the brazier and set it afire. Wong was arrested.

SONG BIRD'S DAUGHTER TO WED SAN DIEGANO

SAN DIEGO, July 7.—A marriage license has been issued for Marie Schumann, daughter of Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink, and Hubert Guy, an insurance man. The wedding details are withheld.

SICK MAN OF TURKEY NOT SO SICK TODAY

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 7.—The Sultan is today reported convalescent. The rumors of his death are officially denied.

FIREBUGS WRITE THREAT LETTER TO SAN DIEGO OFFICIAL

SAN DIEGO, July 7.—Firebugs have addressed a letter to the newspapers threatening to burn the house of S. T. Montgomery, assistant county school superintendent.

It is believed to have been written by persons incensed because Montgomery's wife also holds a school position.

The letter threatens to fire several of Montgomery's houses.

It is learned that once already an effort has been made to burn his residence.

WHILE THERE'S LIFE THERE'S HOPE IN SOAP

PASADENA, July 7.—David B. Gamble has donated 2500 cakes of soap to the American Red Cross to help clean up Monterey, Mexico.

THIS IS THE LATEST PICTURE of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw and her young son, Russell. Mrs. Thaw was expected to testify today at her husband's sanity trial, but escaped that ordeal on account of ill health.

6 PLEAD GUILTY TO CHARGE OF CORRUPTION IN POLITICS

INDIANAPOLIS, July 7.—Six alleged conspirators today pleaded guilty to a charge of attempt to corrupt the county registration primary in the election of 1914.

Bernard Rickelman of Terre Haute, pleaded guilty to a charge of conspiring here to corrupt the Terre Haute elections.

Tom Taggart, another defendant, has filed application for a change of venue.

'TIS WIFE'S PRIVILEGE TO DICTATE STYLE OF HAIR CUT FOR BABY

COLUMBUS, O., July 7.—It is a wife's prerogative to say how the baby's hair shall be cut, according to a ruling made here by Police Judge Osborn.

Ira Williams, colored, disputed the point with Mrs. Williams. The argument ended in a fight. Williams was arrested and his wife charged him with assault and battery.

In police court, Williams was given a suspended sentence of six months and cautioned by the judge to heed his wife's request hereafter when any tonsorial work is to be done.

FORMER FIST CHAMP KNOCKS OUT BOOZE

ATLANTIC CITY, July 7.—Delegates to the Congress of the Anti-Saloon League of America, which opened here today, will be entertained by John L. Sullivan, former fist champion of the world, who, after being knocked out by booze "came back" at John Barleycorn in a way that settled the issue decisively for all time at least with John L.

The ex-champion will again enter the ring with the Boozie King, when he makes a temperance lecture address today before the members of the Anti-Saloon Congress, on the Million dollar Pier in this city by the sea.

If the giant fighter is successful in his initial assault on Old Man Boozie he will make a tour of the country, campaigning in the interests of the Anti-Saloonists. And old John L. can swing verbal punches as hard as he once did his famous knock-out blows in the squared ring.

LONGSHOREMEN QUIT; BIG STRIKE FEARED

SEATTLE, July 7.—One hundred longshoremen at Smith's cove today struck because non-unionists had employment in the work of unloading the steamers Minnesota, Hilonia and Amur. A big tie-up is feared.

HARD TIMES? HARDLY! LOCAL POST OFFICE SHOWS $500 INCREASE

Quarter Ending June 30 Nets Institution Neat Gain Over Period in '14

According to Postmaster C. D. Overshiner, receipts at the local post office for the quarter ending June 30 were $505.01 in excess of the corresponding period in 1914. The receipts for the quarter this year were $948.25 and the receipts for the quarter last year were $942.44.

The increase is particularly gratifying at this time, showing that Santa Ana is continuing to make a healthy and substantial growth. A city's postal receipts are considered a splendid indication of its prosperity.

2000 DIE DAILY OF LIQUOR TRAFFIC, SAYS METHODIST MINISTER

ATLANTIC CITY, July 7.—"Legalized liquor traffic kills 2000 Americans daily," said Rev. A. W. Leonard, pastor of the First Methodist church of Seattle, today, addressing the anti-saloon league.

He declared liquor is man's greatest foe—worse than plague, epidemic or disaster.

He asserts that the saloon's death knell has already been heard.

BRYAN TURNS DOWN PRO-GERMANS; WONT TALK BEFORE THEM

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Learning that the American Independence Union of California is a pro-German organization, William Jennings Bryan today suddenly cancelled his speaking date. He told Daniel O'Connell, the president, he would be unable to address the union's mass meeting tomorrow night.

BEDDING STOLEN, SO PAIR SLEEP IN CHAIRS

RIVERSIDE, July 7.—While Eric Kuehland and wife, of Corona, sat on the porch last night thieves stole their beds and bedding. The pair had to sleep in rocking chairs.

DYNAMITE BOMB IN SHIP'S HOLD, ASSERTS HOLT AS HE LEAPS TO DEATH

NEW YORK, July 7.—A sensation was caused today when it became known that just before Frank Holt, attempted assassin of J. Pierpont Morgan, committed suicide last night, he boasted to the police and others of having placed a fifty-pound dynamite bomb in the hold of some vessel bound for England.

Holt would not give the name of the vessel or any clue to its identity, other than to say the vessel sailed on its outward voyage July 3.

The bomb, Holt claims, is scheduled to explode today.

Before his murderous assault upon Morgan Holt mailed a letter to the New York police authorities telling of this bomb.

The police closely questioned Holt after his arrest but were unable to learn what ship it was that carried the bomb.

Four steamers sailed from this port bound for England on the date given by Holt—July 3.

These liners are the American liner Philadelphia, the French liner Chicago, the Cunard liner Saxonia and the Norwegian-American liner Kristianafjord.

There is a belief that this bomb threat may be empty, but the authorities are confessedly worried.

The police today announce officially that Holt committed suicide by leaping headlong to the cement floor from the roof of his cell.

MRS. HOLT, IN TEXAS, GETS LETTER TELLING OF BOMB

DALLAS, Tex., July 7.—Mrs. Frank Holt, wife of the dead assailant of J. P. Morgan, received a letter today from Holt containing the following words:

"The steamer leaving New York for Liverpool July 3 should sink July 7. God willing. I think it is the Philadelphia or Saxonia—I am not quite sure which."
The letter was immediately telegraphed to the authorities at Washington.

GERMAN PRESS CONDEMNS HOLT AS A MANIAC

BERLIN, July 7.—The German press, today in commenting upon the attempt on J. P. Morgan's life, generally displays a friendly tone toward America.

The papers unanimously condemn the action of Frank Holt and express the opinion that he is a maniac.

STEAMERS ARE WARNED BY WIRELESS MESSAGES

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The Navy Department today warned by wireless the liners Philadelphia and Saxonia, telling of the ship bomb threat made by Frank Holt, the assailant of J. P. Morgan who committed suicide last night.

MORGAN'S CONDITION SAID TO BE MOST EXCELLENT

NEW YORK, July 7.—Bulletins received here from the bedside of J. P. Morgan declare the financier's condition today to be "most excellent."

All danger is declared to have passed and his wounds are said to be healing fast.

MRS. HOLT COLLAPSES WHEN TOLD OF SUICIDE OF HOLT

DALLAS, July 7.—Mrs. Frank Holt is today on the verge of a complete breakdown.

Her family physician today broke to her the news of Holt's suicide. She collapsed, but later rallied and is now bearing up bravely.

HOLT IS IDENTIFIED AS ERICH MUENTER

CHICAGO, July 7.—Professor Chester Nathan Gould of Chicago University today positively identified Frank Holt as Erich Muentner, the alleged wife slayer. He says he met him at Cornell last November and was at first puzzled, but then recognized him as Muentner.

HOLT AGAIN IDENTIFIED AS ERICH MUENTER

MINOLA, July 7.—S. T. Smith and T. W. Hillier of Cambridge, Mass., today viewed Holt's body and positively identified it as the remains of Erich Muentner. Both knew him well.

The police are busy hunting Holt's accomplices, as they believe the work involved several.
Holt told a "stool pigeon" in the Mincola jail that he was born in Milwaukee and educated in Berlin.

Within a month, possibly within two weeks, a gang of twenty-five prisoners will be taken from the county jail and put to work on the county road below Laguna Beach.

That will be the first work to be done under the plan of the Board of Supervisors and Sheriff Jackson to use county prisoners on road building.

Today Architects Elwing and Tedford are drawing plans for a steel cage that is to be used to hold the prisoners at night. This cage will measure nineteen feet six inches by fourteen feet. Inside it will be three tiers of bunks. Arrangements will be made for bunks for thirty-six men.

It is proposed to start the work with a crew of twenty-five prisoners and two guards. All of the work will not be done by prisoners. There will necessarily be some teaming that will have to be paid for out of the road district funds. However, it is planned to have the pick and shovel work done by prisoners.

Supervisor Leek is anxious to get the road below Laguna Beach into better shape. At present there are some steep places and sharp turns that the supervisor believes should be eliminated, and with the work of the prisoners he proposes to eliminate them.

The prisoners are to be used in doing a good deal of work on the El Modena grade and on Santiago canyon roads.

The El Modena grade is to be made full thirty feet wide all the way, and work will be done to better the grade and reduce the curves. Work is also to be done on the road between Villa Park and the County Park.

"It has long been my desire to make use of the prisoners on county road work," said Sheriff Jackson, "and I am only too willing to cooperate with the supervisors in this work."

HOLDS DISCUSSION OF VARIOUS REPORTS

The following report of a meeting of the Taxpayers' League held at the Santa Ana city hall on Saturday, July 3, was submitted for publication by William Feldner of Orange, secretary of the league.

"President Cole called the meeting to order and on motion the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was dispensed with; the secretary was then called upon to read the names of applicants for membership, and as there was no objection raised to any of them, on motion duly made and carried the president declared the persons whose names were read elected members of the league.

"No formal report having been prepared by the investigating committee, a general discussion of subjects of interest to the taxpayers was had.

"One that was of special interest was that of the enormous cost, which is constantly increasing, for the support of indigents in our county, both in and out of the poor house.

"The consensus of opinion after discussion was the belief that a large number of foreigners and their families that probably have no right under the emigration laws to be in our country, are being supported by the county, that a rigid investigation should be made by the proper authorities, and that those unlawfully here should at once be deported.

"It was also suggested as a remedy for the petty criminals who commit some misdemeanor to get into jail so the county will have to support both them and their families, that a plan whereby they would be fed on bread and water, say one week and the next week regular rations, this to continue during the entire time of imprisonment, would probably have a beneficial effect in thinning them out.

"The next subject of importance discussed was the work of the county forester. According to reports, the work of the forester was endorsed by the Associated Chambers without making personal investigations, and further it came to the knowledge of the members of the league, that one Halesworth had made complaint to the Board of Supervisors of some of the work and acts of said forester. After discussion a motion was made, which was carried, for the election of a committee of three to select some competent person to make a thorough investigation into this matter and report at the next meeting. This committee was elected.

"There being no further business before the league, on motion it adjourned until the first Saturday in August at 2:30 p. m.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

JUDGE TAKES IN $232 IN FINES ON TRAFFIC

Editor Perry Has Displeased Visitor Arrested and Fine of $10 Is the Result

Justice of the Peace Cox collected $232 in fines this morning from violators of traffic laws. The hat was passed among some forty automobilists, motorcyclists and bicyclists charged with offenses that include speeding and carrying no lights at night.

Justice Cox has a usual price for speeders. It is $10. He also has a usual price for automobiles that travel the county roads at night without having proper lights. That usual price is $3. His ordinary fine for a bicyclist who rides his wheel at night on a county road without having the bike properly spotted with light is $2.

Those who were cared for by the Justice today were arrested most of them on Sunday and Monday. A large number did not appear, merely forfeiting the bail put up by them with the motorcops, Ballard and Davenport.

Gets Out on Bail

R. S. Bailey yesterday gave $1,000 bail for his appearance in justice's court on July 13 on a charge of assisting in a jail-break at Newport Beach Monday night. It is charged that he broke the lock off of a cell of the jail and let out three men. Lee E. Bailey, who is jointly accused with R. S. Bailey, has not yet given bail. A. B. Goodwin, one of those given freedom by Bailey, pleaded guilty to escaping from jail, and paid a fine of $5. Goodwin said that he was asleep in the cell when he awakened and found the cell door open. He concluded to walk forth.

Tom Moreno pleaded guilty to gambling at Los Alamitos, and was ordered to pay a fine of $100. He has not yet paid the fine, but expects to do so. Fred Lemos, arrested with him, pleaded not guilty.

Sassed the Editor

Because he became angered over a statement made in the Garden Grove News, A. T. Dungan is minus $10. He sassed the editor, W. E. Perry. He says he did not hit Editor Perry, but he did place his hand upon Perry's shoulder or his arm. Dungan did not say that he laid his hand gently. Nevertheless it can be concluded that he did lay it firmly.

It seems that a couple of weeks ago Dungan and his daughter were about to board a street car when along came a motorcycle with two young men upon it. The motorcycle hit Miss Dungan and threw her under the P. E. car standing at the crossing. In reporting the accident to the world, Perry's paper resorted to a statement to the effect that no one was to blame. At least, Dungan says that it was some such statement that caused him to percolate into a conversation with Editor Perry for the purpose of remonstrating against the statement. Perry was not at all tickled to death with his visit from Dungan. In fact, he was displeased. Really, he was put out about it. To tell the truth, he swore to a complaint charging Dungan with disturbing the peace. That is why Dungan was separated from $10 this morning when he was before Justice Cox. It doesn't pay to sass a newspaperman.

Richardson Fined

Policeman John Ryan arrested Jack Richardson Monday night on a charge of disturbing the peace. Yesterday Richardson paid a fine of $10.

AT THE COURT HOUSE SAY REVOLVER FIRED BY AN ACCIDENT

Today before a jury Manuel Garcia, charged with attempting to kill Acenston Medina at El Modena on June 13, is on trial in Judge West's courtroom. Attorney Wallace W. Davis for Garcia stated that the defense would contend that there was no intention on Garcia's part to injure Medina. Garcia was hunting for another man, and in an attempt to stop him the revolver he had was accidentally discharged. On the jury are H. A. Miller, A. C. Williams, John Holt, Josiah Jackson, C. E. Laveridge, D. F. Campbell, William Collar, John McMillan, C. E. Dixon, E. E. Kirkwood, J. D. Price and S. C. Hartranft.

Lets Them Out

Following the example set by Sheriff Jackson and several constables, Constable G. L. Jackson of Orange has given notice to County Clerk Williams that he has revoked deputyships. Jackson has taken stars from A. L. Tomblin, A. W. Fullerton, H. H. Wheeler, E. M. Fullerton and G. M. Bartley. The reason for cutting off deputyships is that the state law makes a principal responsible for any personal damages that a deputy may receive while in the course of duty. That means that a principal would have to carry insurance for all of his deputies.

For Administration

The will of Carrie J. Coullip has been filed for probate. It names Richard Melrose as executor. The entire estate is left to the widow, William F. Coullip. The estate is valued at $25,000. Melrose & Ames are attorneys for the petitioner.

Lottie Matthews has asked for letters of administration upon the estate of W. T. Matthews. The estate, valued at $1450, goes to the widow and two daughters. Allen & Allen of Fullerton are attorneys for Mrs. Matthews.

For Divorce

Action for divorce has been brought by Edith McFarlane Barker against Judson E. Barker. H. J. Forgy is attorney for the plaintiff.

Judgment Recorded

There has been recorded here an abstract of judgment for $632.92 entered in San Francisco in favor of Morris Windt and against Leora E. Newcome. An attachment notice in connection with the action has also been recorded here.

FULLERTON HAS GAIN CLOSE TO HALF MILLION

Santa Ana's Assessment for the Year Is Totaled at $6,652,385

According to totals made in County Assessor Sleeper's office today, Santa Ana's assessment is now $6,652,385, which is a gain of $237,875 over the county's assessment for the county seat in 1914.

Of the seven incorporated cities in the county, the greatest raise in assessment went to Fullerton. During the last year new oil wells brought in on the Murphy lease, inside the city limits of Fullerton, gave that city a lift in valuation. Fullerton's assessment for this year is $3,629,819, which is $458,954 increase over the total of the 1914 assessment.

While totals have not yet been made for the other incorporated cities, the assessor states that there is no question but that Fullerton made the biggest increase.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR IN A COURT REPORT

In yesterday's report of the filing of the will of Mary Jane Neill of Santa Ana appeared a typographical error. As written the copy read: "Mrs. Mary J. Neill, a Santa Ana pioneer who died last week." As it appeared, as a result of error in putting the copy into type, it read: "Mrs. Mary J. Neill, a Santa Ana prisoner who died last week." Those who knew Mrs. Neill saw at once that it was a mistake, such as at times will occur in any newspaper.

LINCOLN SLAYERS DIE BY NOOSE 50 YEARS AGO THIS DAY

DENVER, Colo., July 7.—Fifty years ago today the conspirators convicted of assassinating President Lincoln were executed in the prison yard of the old Washington penitentiary. A square wooden platform, ten or fifteen feet from the ground, with a trap door cut in the floor, formed the scaffold.

Benjamin F. Noll of this city, a member of the guard which surrounded the scaffold, recalled the scene today.

"It was a hot and sultry day," he said. "Hardly a sound was heard but the sobbing of Mrs. Mary Surratt and the whispering of the two priests who sat with her. The four conspirators—Mrs. Surratt, Lewis Payne, Powell, David E. Herold and George A. Atzerott—sat on wooden chairs on that high platform. The men were quiet, pale and immovable. Mrs. Surratt was shaken with convulsive sobs and required the attention of two priests, one on either side of her.

"At a signal from the platform, the soldiers stood at present arms. One of the men arose from his chair and stepped forward. They placed the black hood over his head and adjusted the noose. The trap clicked, the body fell through the platform, and when it was certain that the man was dead, his neck having been broken by the fall, the body was immediately carried away.

"I didn't look after that. I heard them step forward; heard the trap click, and heard the rope creak with the weight of the body.

"Mrs. Surratt arose, assisted by the priest, and came forward to the trap. I looked up when her time came. She was so weak she collapsed and had to be supported by the priests while they bound her eyes. I could hear her sobbing. I didn't look after they placed the death cap over her eyes. I wanted to stop my ears. I could hear her sobbing, sobbing, sobbing, until I thought I must scream.

"I closed my eyes. I clenched my fists, and the next thing I heard was the order to retire. It was all over—the assassination of Lincoln was averted. I suppose the entire ceremony didn't take twenty minutes but it seemed hours to me. And the boys of that woman ring in my ears to this day. I have seen many horrible sights. I was wounded five times during the Civil War, and I was hardened to the gruesomeness of battle; but this was an experience I had never reckoned with. It was awful. Nothing unusual happened; everything went off without a hitch. The atmosphere of gloom by reason of Lincoln's death had not lifted from the people generally.

"The thing that bothers me is, what would Abraham Lincoln think if he knew? Abraham Lincoln, the tenderest, most compassionate man of his time, the man who forgave his enemies because if hurt him to be at

BIKICLIST IS INJURED BY HEAVY OIL TRUCK

Fullerton Tribune: Clifford Hancock, 13-year-old son of Thomas Hancock of 131 West Wilshire avenue, Fullerton, was struck by a Union Oil Company truck on Spadra avenue Monday and sustained severe injuries about the head and chest.

The boy, in company with several boy friends, started to Anaheim to witness the celebration, making the trip on bicycles. A few yards south of Orangefhorpe avenue they were overtaken by the truck and just what happened is difficult to say, as conflicting stories are told.

Chauffeur Thompson, who was operating the truck, claims that as he overtook the boy an approaching auto crowded him over to the side of the road slightly and the boy, who was riding in the dirt drive at the side of the road, attempted to ride up on to the cement roadway and his wheel skidded, throwing him on the ground in front of the truck, and he was struck by the front wheels and knocked to one side.

The boys who were in the party told a different story. They state that the truck approached without warning, and as the boy turned to look behind the handle bar of his bicycle was caught by the fender and he was thrown to the ground, sustaining the injuries when his head struck the pavement.

The truck passed over the frame of the wheel, which was completely demolished. The boy was placed in a passing motor car and brought to the Fullerton Hospital.

CITY TRUSTEES

MANY EMPLOYEES OF CITY ARE PUT ON DAY PAY

Maryatt's Request That Street Men Be Given Vacations Not Favored

Employees of the street, sewer and water departments were put on the same pay basis by the City Trustees at a meeting last night. Hitherto the street employees have been getting straight salaries. When it rained they could lay off, and there would be no less pay at the end of the month.

Some phases of the payroll of the city were discussed last evening. The discussion followed the motion of Trustee Tubbs that Policeman Pond be given a vacation of two weeks commencing July 16. This motion carried.

"I move that the eleven men working in the street department be given a week's vacation on full pay," said Trustee Maryatt.

This motion caused a silence to fall upon the board meeting. It was a new proposition.

"Is there a second to my motion?" asked Maryatt. "I think it ought to carry. I think we would get better work out of the men." There was no second.

"We'd better think over that proposition," said Trustee Greenleaf. "If we give it to the men in the street department we will have to go right down the line in all of the departments."

"How is it that the policemen get this vacation, then?" asked Maryatt. "The state law provides that we must give policemen and firemen two weeks vacation on pay," replied Greenleaf. "That is mandatory."

Tubbs said that it would cost the city several hundred dollars to carry out the vacation idea.

When asked concerning his department, Ransom Reid, superintendent of water and sewers, said that there are five employees of his department on salary, including two in the office and himself, and the rest are on a day basis, paid when they work, with extra time for over-time. He said vacations had never been allowed the per diem employees, but certainly if the street employees were to have vacations he would expect that his per diem men would get vacations on pay, for some of them had been with the city for twelve or fifteen years.

Street Superintendent O'Brien said that when he took the department he found two men ranking as engineers, paid $75 a month, and the others as teamsters, paid $60 a month, all on salary. The engineers do not do engineering work all of the time, yet draw engineers' salaries.

"Though they are paid when it rains and they lay off," said Tubbs. "I notice that the street department men quit on the dot when 5 o'clock comes. They left half a load of hay on a transfer wagon at the city barns. When 5 o'clock came they quit."

After further discussion, a motion was carried whereby the street department employees were put on a basis of $22.50 a day to be paid when they work; for over-time, time and a half to be allowed; nine hours to be a day's work. Engineers are to be paid $22.50 a day, when doing engineering work only.

Curbs and Trees
On the recommendation of Trustee Maryatt and Engineer Bonebrake it was decided that the curb on East First street east of the Santa Fe be put in twenty feet from the center line. That will give two feet extra on the sides where they are needed to save some trees.

Following a recent order of the board that curbs be put on West Second street came a report that J. A. Benjamin, owner of 312 West Second, does not want three big maple trees in front of his property removed. Engineer Bonebrake said that the curb line runs through the center of the trunks of the trees, and that the street as it now stands is thirty-three feet wide. The trustees decided that the trees would have to come out, as they did not think it advisable to make the street any narrower than thirty-three feet.

McPhee said that about the same condition prevails in regard to sixteen locust trees on Van Ness avenue.

For Fire Protection

A petition was received from the Santa Ana Valley Walnut Growers' Association, J. D. Thomas, the Orange County Dried Fruit Association, C. C. Collins and J. D. Parsons, asking that the city extend its fire mains to the east side of the Santa Fe and put in hydrants to provide water to fight fire that might start in any of the buildings north of Main street and east of the Santa Fe tracks. The nearest hydrant is now at the Santa Ana Commercial Company plant, and a hose to the packing houses might be cut by a passing train. The petitioners asked that a hydrant be placed at Fourth street and another 400 or 500 feet to the north.

Water Superintendent Reid said that he did not consider it good policy to build mains on private property. On his suggestion that an extension from Sixth street across the tracks would give more protection in that vicinity, it was ordered that a hydrant be put in east of the tracks, opposite Sixth street, and another hydrant on Fourth, east of the tracks, the right of way across the Santa Fe at Sixth to be obtained by the petitioners from the Santa Fe.

Payment of Interest
E. P. Stafford, assistant cashier of the Farmers and Merchants' National Bank, said that about $300 in interest coupons for West Fifth street Vrooman work had come in, and there was no money set apart in the city treasury to meet them. He wanted to know what was going to be done about it. It appeared that the interest comes due before the city has had a chance to collect taxes from the assessment district to meet the interest. Mayor Visel said it was not advisable to jeopardize the city's credit by refusing to meet the coupons, which bear the signatures of the city treasurer. The matter was referred to Visel, Maryatt and Greenleaf and Attorney Scott, with power to act.

About a Tree

Mrs. Laura Murray petitioned for a permit to cut a tree at the corner of Fourth and Lacy streets. The petition stated that the tree has been rendered unsightly by the operations of the electric company in trimming it. The matter was referred to the street committee with power to act.

E. E. Stricker of Orange was granted a jitbus license.

The petition of J. A. Holland to put a gasoline tank above ground at Fifth and Pacific was referred to the fire committee.

Mrs. Arthur Ammon was granted a rooming house license at 415½ East Fourth street.

The petition of J. W. Hancock to put up a metal watch sign on Sycamore street at Thacker's Store was granted, provided the sign be an electric sign.

Advises Caution
The Merchants and Manufacturers' Association asked that ornamental trash boxes be established along the streets, and also suggested to merchants that if they would sweep their sidewalks Saturday nights the streets would look better on Sundays.

Visel favored granting the petition. "Now is a good time to retrench," said McPhee, "just as we are starting out on our fiscal year. Our tax rate at the limit will raise us only about $60,000 for running the city government. While these cans would not cost much, the best thing we can do is to lay the petition on the table." This was done.

Maryatt said that the block east of the city hall is largely given up to weeds, and looked bad. The matter was referred to the street committee. C. F. Havens' bond as a cement contractor was presented.

A bill for $21 was allowed E. L. House. House claimed that a well on his ranch was damaged by leakage from the outfall sewer.

The new city pump was accepted, subject to the approval of Engineer Mulholland of Los Angeles.

To Pay for Oil
The petition of E. C. Martin to have East Chestnut in front of his place oiled, he to pay for the oil, was granted. It was stated that oiling a street whenever a property owner is willing to pay for the oil is good business for the city.

Wright street from First to Fourth was ordered oiled.

City Attorney Scott reported that the P. E. has ceased loading and unloading the express car on Main street. That work is now being done at the P. E. depot. The change was due to a letter written by the attorney.

J. S. Knoller was given permission to lay a temporary pipeline across Bristol street near Willets street, in order to irrigate a bean crop.

The trustees adjourned to next Monday night, at which time the jitney ordinance will be ready for reading.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS

One of the big gatherings of July is to be the world's convention of Christian Endeavor Societies, booked for Chicago for July 7-12. Four million young people are members of the societies whose delegates gather for this meeting.

A hotel keeper in one city where one of these conventions was held a few years ago was asked in advance what he could do toward accommodating the delegates. He replied, off-hand, that he would take care of them all in his hotel. Afterward when 20,000 to 30,000 delegates began to rain down on the town, he concluded he would need some cot beds if he was going to take the job.

The most remarkable thing about this society is the ease and harmony with which young people from all the Protestant denominations work together in one body. Their fathers and mothers may look at the dividing lines between the various sects as bloody chasms, difficult to cross or close up. But to the young people working so well together in one society, they must seem mere imaginary lines, needlessly divisive and duplicating much needless effort. The effect of this inter-denominational organization must be strong toward breaking down futile sectarian lines.

The doings of this society do not occupy much space in the secular newspapers. But it has given a note of enthusiasm to church work that formerly was absent. When the church activities were all managed by ancient deacons and sedate mothers in Israel, the young people sat in the back seats and giggled. In an organization of their own making, they feel more like working and doing things.

It is not to be supposed that the delegates to this gathering make their pilgrimages purely from religious zeal. Desire to see the country and even the attraction of the society of the opposite sex may have a share of it. But earthly matches occurring in this way may be made in heaven. Also no one who ever attended one of these meetings could doubt the fervent enthusiasm of these young folks for the Christian church.

THE LACK OF SKILLED LABOR

A man connected with a concern now making war material, remarked, a few days ago, that it seemed almost impossible to get enough skilled workmen. He found that there is a good deal of help that can be had. But only a fraction of the applicants are men who can do a high grade of mechanical adjustment.

In rush times almost any kind of an employee can get work. His inferior product slips along. The inspector may see its defects. But when customers are clamoring for delivery of orders, many faults slip through that ought not to pass.

In the dull times of the past few years, inferior workmen have found themselves left out of the shuffle. If there was work for only a part of the force, the skilled man was kept at the bench, while the less efficient man was informed that there was nothing doing. No complaint might be made of the quality of his work. But somehow there was never anything for him.

Just now the rush of war orders is providing work for many men whose product is of inferior quality. But when the war orders stop, and before the normal trade of peace times is re-established, there will be many an idle day for the second-rate artisan. These conditions are true not merely of workmen in the lines making war material, but in all lines of mechanical employment.

The young mechanic should put some brains into his work. He should study the philosophy of mechanical processes and physical forces, and learn the one perfect way of performing every motion. If some of the time spent in discussing politics and baseball were spent in getting information about the best methods of producing the desired mechanical results, there would be more meat for the family table and more clothes for the kids. Also in every trade there are practical books of technical science that give good ideas. If they can not be had in a man's own town, they can be borrowed at slight cost from circulating libraries. It's up to the individual.

Right here in California there are radiant Egypt sunsets and splendorous Italian night-skies. When the solemn procession of distant planets and suns and our own satellite bursts upon the rapt gaze, athwart the spangled heavens, we need no Mediterranean touch to complete the unspeakable glory and majestic beauty of the firmament scene. We may go forth

Into the blithe and breathing air,
Into the solemn wood,

Solemn and silent everywhere,
And we find Nature with folded hands,
"Kneeling at her evening prayer."
And unless our feet be firmly riveted to the common-place, matter-of-fact earth, we may soar off with the poet into nocturnal rhapsodies of this order:

The land of Song within thee lies,
Watered by living springs;
The lids of Fancy's sleepless eyes
Are gates unto that Paradise;
Holy thoughts, like stars, arise;
Its clouds are angels' wings.
Whether we rhapsodize with the poet, or whether we quietly bask in the splendors of the heavens, we must indeed be sordid, unsentimental and insensible to grandeur and glory if we enter into the "calm, majestic presence of the Night" and are not thrilled and stirred thereby to the profoundest depths of our natures.—Pasadena Star.

Los Angeles is second with $91,867; San Diego third, with $13,148; and Tia Juana fourth, with $5134.

In exports Los Angeles leads all with $178,332; Calexico second, with $64,553; Tia Juana third, with $22,952; and San Diego fourth, with $1165.

Enthusiastic Over Imperial Valley

(From L. A. Financial News.)
"There seems to be a growing expectation that conditions will soon show a marked improvement. The large number of persons now in California and coming to California during 1915 will put a considerable amount of money into circulation which will help conditions here," said William Sproule, president of the Southern Pacific railroad, who was in Los Angeles after a trip through Imperial Valley. Continuing he said:
"Imperial Valley should be, and undoubtedly will be, one of the principal points of visit for the many tourists who come to California. There are few visitors to Southern California but who have heard the story of the wonderful development of the Imperial Valley and of its big crops. I went through the valley, stopping at all the principal points. Everything is in flourishing condition. Crops are fine. The modern season is now at its height and the returns from the early eastern shipments, now coming in, show prices well in excess of last year."
"As we circled about Calipatria and Niland, it was remarkable to note that green fields with growing crops had taken the place of what but a year and a half ago was uncultivated land. The finest alfalfa I ever saw in my life I saw yesterday in that section."

Today's Feature Story

[By a United Press Staff Correspondent]

LONDON, June 7.—(By Mail to New York)—Some of the touches of human interest emanating from the sinking of the great Cunard Lusitania off the southern coast of Ireland on May 7, were not told in the cables. Little incidents at Queenstown where the survivors and lifeless victims were landed were dwarfed by the more striking details sent back by the London reporters despatched to the scene to gather the narratives of survivors.

They failed to tell at the time how for three days a telegram addressed to Alfred G. Vanderbilt remained on file at the Queens Hotel. The hotel office was a veritable clearing house for telegrams to survivors. Hundreds of them were piled in a pile and as application was made, the clerk simply handed over the pile. Every person who applied "pawed" over the ever-increasing bundle and each one paused for a moment as he came across the telegram addressed to Vanderbilt. He believed that Vanderbilt at that moment was dead; either floating about somewhere on the ocean or amid the tangled mass that was a short time before the great Lusitania.

No reporter in his rush to cable more sales facts thought to touch upon the finding of a body that might easily have been identified as that of Elbert Hubbard. It lay in the stone town hall morgue along with thirty other corpses. The lines of the face, the apparel and other points readily appealed to the American newspaperman who had seen Hubbard in life. But it lacked one feature—the flowing necktie. There was no necktie. And this one point stopped the reporters from rushing to the telegraph office to "flash" the news that Hubbard's body was found. They had no incentive to jump at conclusions. They were willing to send reports as reports but were loath to "make" news out of the ghastly surroundings.

It was unaccounted how a prominent resident of a New England manufacturing city wandered for two days aimlessly searching for his missing family; how he finally connected with a kind-hearted man who listened to his disconnected story and aided him in a search of the morgues. It wasn't related how strong men hysterically laughed as they told of parting from their loved ones as the Lusitania sank; how they themselves were saved and had since failed to find their wives or daughters or sons.

The story of how a prominent American auto manufacturer, clad in makeshift garments, spent the night in a tiny second-rate hotel room without a blanket to cover him wasn't told to the reporters. He declined an interview in true American magnate fashion as he left the Queenstown railroad station.

Little was said of how the kind-hearted Irish people of Queenstown opened their homes to care for women survivors who had lost all and in many cases husbands, sons and daughters.

the hands of men there was no chance for improvement.

"It isn't the amount used in the army that is costing so much," she said, "but the amount of waste. There are many women who have volunteered for war service who could cook for masses of 150 to 200 men, and their employment would prevent waste."
The meeting also adopted a resolution protesting against the army practice of serving the last meal of the day to private soldiers at 4:30 p. m., which, it was declared, was a direct incentive to their seeking further refreshment in saloons.

PLEASANT OUTING

Friendly Circle Class Enjoys Picnic at Modjeska's Mineral Springs

The Friendly Circle class of the First Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a very pleasant day's outing Monday at the Modjeska Mineral Springs, twenty miles up Williams canyon. All met at Mr. Buchheim's early in the morning, the jolly crowd of five auto loads reaching the picnic grounds after an hour's ride.

The forenoon was spent in exploring the surrounding country mountain climbing, and gathering wild flowers, which gave all such keen appetites that the odor of coffee and baked wienies was all the dinner bell necessary to call them to a sumptuous dinner. It was prepared and served by the gentlemen of the class and all did justice to the well-spread board.

After the picnic repast the company enjoyed a stroll up the canyon to "The Oaks," a beautiful summer home set well back in the mountainside, and about 2:30 p. m., the big ball game started between the Tigers and the White Sox, the game lasting about two hours. At the end of the game the score stood 49 to 51 in favor of the Tigers.

The remnants of dinner were then cleaned up in the form of a supper, and all departed for home at about 6 p. m., after a very delightful Fourth. There were thirty-two members present.

Merry Houseparty

Miss Luella Donaldson, assisted by her brother, Ray Donaldson, entertained with a delightful houseparty over the fourth and fifth of July, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Donaldson of 1096 South Main street.

The floral decorations of this pretty bungalow home were in harmony with the glorious Fourth, masses of fragrant red, white and blue sweet peas being used throughout the rooms. Monday was spent at Balboa, where surf bathing and dancing was enjoyed, the company returning in time for a sumptuous dinner at the Donaldson home, the merry party disbanding at a late hour.

Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. J. Tyler Parker Jr., of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Valentine and Dr. Paul S. Girvin of Los Angeles.

Informal Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. S. Pomeroy entertained informally last evening with a merry little dinner party, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Osborn, Mr. Osborn's sister, Mrs. Riley and her son, Robert, from St. Louis, Mo.

Another Good Time Is Enjoyed at Hospitable Thomas Home

Misses Buelah and Gladys Thomas recently entertained at their pleasant country home in honor of Misses Edith and Lela Williamson, of Anderson, Ind., who are visiting a fortnight with Misses Ruth and Pearl Richards.

The young people were taken to the Thomas home in machines and upon their arrival, they found the glorious Fourth of July decorations throughout the rooms.

A very unique contest commenced the round of merriment. A number of questions were distributed, answers being found in the American flag, the lucky contestant being awarded a silk flag.

Other games were played and dancing was also enjoyed to the music from an excellent gramophone furnished by Carl G. Strook.

The evening was whiled away all too soon and at a late hour the guests were seated at a long table, prettily decorated with bright red fuschias, ferns and fragrant red roses. Tiny flags marked each place and the red color motif was observed in the strawberry ice cream, served with delicious home-made cake.

Those enjoying this pleasant affair were Misses Edith and Lela Williams, the honored guests, Misses Pearl and Ruth Richards, Lillian Walker, Buelah and Gladys Thomas; Messrs. Ralph Brett Stewart and Carson Smith, Roy Osborne, Charles Swanner, Loftus Morrison and Harry Witman.

Surprise Popular S. S. Teacher

The residence of Mrs. E. D. Holmes near Red Hill was the scene of a pleasant three hours last evening, when the Philathea class of the First Baptist church surprised its teacher, Mrs. Holmes.

The honoree had been given a vague hint of something about to happen, but was nevertheless thoroughly surprised when five auto loads of young ladies drove into her yard announcing themselves by much and varied honking.

In her usual sweet manner Mrs. Holmes welcomed her self-invited guests and soon the parlors rang with the merriment of a clever guessing game, in which each one present represented a well-known book. One lady, wearing a gaudy badge and button, was "The Lady of the Decoration." Another, generously offering a red copper to every one represented "The Penny Philanthropist." The heartiest laugh was provoked when a young woman yearning a string of bushy wads of cotton announced herself as "Lamb's Taler."

At the close of the evening the guests gathered around a crackling fire out of doors and there at the end of long sticks roasted their refreshments of wienies and marshmallows.

Guests at Gilbert Home

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Gilbert are enjoying a visit from the latter's cousins, Misses Kathryn and Frances Hain, of Memphis, Tenn., who will remain in this city for several weeks. The Gilberts and their house guests spent Sunday and Monday at Camp Baldy.

Tonight Mrs. Gilbert's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John McDowell, and their daughters, Misses Fannie and Eloise McDowell, of Memphis, will arrive for a visit at the Gilbert home.

Doctors' Annual Meeting

The Orange County Medical Association held its monthly business meeting last evening in the public library with good attendance.

Dr. Walter Breen, a prominent Los Angeles physician, was present and his paper on "Vaccines and Serum Therapy" was very interesting and helpful.

Following the successful business meeting, the company adjourned to Taylor's gold rooms where they enjoyed an appetizing spread at a long table, prettily decorated with gladiolus.

Plans for State Y. P. Convention Discussed at Interesting Meeting

The Y. P. B's held an exceedingly pleasant meeting at the attractive home of Ethel Rood, 601 South Birch street, last night.

The back lawn was aglow with electric lighted Japanese lanterns and the natural beauty of the place was a charming setting for the program, which was of an extraordinary nature.

E. M. Brown, county Y. M. C. A. secretary, gave a most interesting and instructive talk on Sane Amusements. So thoroughly was this talk appreciated by those in attendance that Mr. Brown was requested to give it at the state Y. P. convention which convenes in Santa Ana the 26th and 27th of August.

The state superintendent of this organization, Mrs. Hattie M. Doughty, was present and gave necessary plans for the convention, which will be looked forward to as the greatest gathering of young people Santa Ana has ever seen at any convention.

Miss Vida Guard of Los Angeles was also a guest at last night's meeting and conducted the devotional exercises, in an impressive manner reading as a scripture lesson John 15. Only one hindrance prevented this meeting from being recognized as one of the most delightful of the year, and that was the small attendance. Suffice it to say what was lacking in quantity was redoubled in quality.

Delicious fruitade and wafers were served at the close of the evening by the committee in charge, and much credit is given the hostess, her mother, Mrs. Hedrick, and their assistant, Miss Helen Stanley.

Merry Birthday Dinner

One of the pleasantly informal affairs of the week end was the birthday dinner given by Mrs. Llewellyn H. Cartmell at her home, 923 Frenca street, Saturday eve in honor of the eightieth birthday of Mrs. Viola Craemer of Los Angeles.

It was just a good old-fashioned dinner with old-fashioned decorations followed by an enjoyable social visit, for Mrs. Palmer is a former resident of Santa Ana and the gathering of old friends was very congenial.

The day also celebrated the birthday of the hostess who shared congratulations with the guest of honor. Those present included Mrs. Viola Craemer, Mrs. Annie C. Tomblin, Mrs. Mary V. Lyon, Miss Jane Aubrey, Mrs. Cartmell and Miss Helen Van Cartmell.

Jolly Class Meeting

The B. C. I. S. S. Class of the First Presbyterian Sunday School believes in combining service with good times, and their social and business meeting last evening at the home of their popular teacher, Mrs. A. M. McDermott, was a merry one.

AMUSEMENTS

At Clune's

At Clune's Theater is being shown one of the most remarkable motoring films ever exhibited. It is one showing the Cadillac Eight beating the "Lark" recently on the record-breaking run from Los Angeles to San Francisco. A great deal of ingenuity was brought to bear in the filming of the picture and the result is nothing short of remarkable.

The start of the famous race is shown. T. J. Beaudet and William Bramlette, the two noted pilots of racing automobiles, are shown in the Cadillac Eight as it stands alongside the steam engine in the yards before the start. Then follows a series of thrilling views in which the Cadillac is seen racing at break-neck speed along great stretches of completed state highway and over equally long stretches of perilous desert road. The section of the picture showing the car flying through the dangerous road through the Antelope Valley is especially interesting. At times the powerful motor car is seen to skid terrifically. But at all times the motor is held closely to the road—one can fairly feel the sensational strength and skill of the man at the wheel.

This afternoon and evening will offer Clune patrons their final opportunity to see Margarita Fisher in "The Quest," a film that is unique in many ways. "The Outlaw's Revenge" will be shown tomorrow and Friday. This play tells an exciting story and is bound to win great favor. The vaudeville acts of Scott and Wallace and Gibson and Dyso are very clever and pleasing.

At the Temple

Mothers who had their babies' pictures taken by the Pathe camera man on the grounds at Mrs. A. J. Crookshank's residence, North Spurgeon street, a few weeks ago will be delighted to know that the pictures turned out very beautifully and before these pictures go out on a tour of the country, manager Schiesinger has made special arrangements to exhibit the film first at the Temple Theater on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, together with the regular program, without any additional price in admission.

"Everyone interested should be on hand early to get good seats," says Manager Schiesinger. "There will be a matinee each day and two shows each night. Santa Ana people should be proud of the opportunity of exhibiting to the outside world such a picture of healthy childhood."

At the Lyric

King Baggot and Jane Gail are being featured at the Lyric Theater tonight in a big Broadway three-act drama, entitled "A Strange Disappearance," which is certainly one of the unusual top-notchers. Other high class photo plays are also being presented which goes to make up an evening of splendid enjoyment.

At the Princess

A mountain slide which buries a village in the debris is one of the big thrills in a chapter, soon to be released, of "The Diamond from the Sky." This exciting episode is in keeping with the many sizable sensations which make the North American $10,000 prize pictured novel the most wonderful production coming out of any motion picture studio today. W. J. Edmarsh, in the role of Quabba, the hunchback organ grinder, is the person who actually starts the landslide, and he is the direct occasion of the village being destroyed. George Periolat, as Luke Lovell, gathers his band of renegades in this locality to do battle with the gypsy tribe of Hagar, foster mother of the beautiful Esther, played by Lottie Pickford. In an effort to aid Hagar and Esther, Quabba loosens a large rock which is sent tumbling down the mountain side. The turmoil in the village below delays their giving of the alarm. The rock carries with it immense quantities of earth and stones, and by degrees the surface soil of the entire mountain-side is dislodged, and sent rushing down the declivity to bury the town completely. To make the scene utterly realistic, artisans were kept mining and tunnelling for several days, so that the earth when it slid should have all the force of a genuine avalanche.

Millions Lost in Butter Frauds

Widespread violations of the oleomargarine law during the past 12 years just discovered by the revenue authorities has caused it to be declared a loss to the government of $27,000,000. The investigation, it is announced, has disclosed that since 1902 more than 200,000,000 pounds of colored oleomargarine have been manufactured and sold as the uncolored product, or as butter, without the payment of the federal tax of ten cents a pound.

MOOSE GATHERING AT SAN DIEGO TO BE HELD JULY 19-24

The supreme international convention of the Loyal Order of Moose will be held in San Diego, Cal., from July 19 to 24, inclusive. This organization, with numbers between seven and eight hundred thousand members in the United States, Canada and Europe, will undoubtedly send to the Pacific coast the largest delegation of any convention held in the west this year.

Charles S. Shaw of Santa Ana will represent the Santa Ana lodge. Many noted men, who are members of the order, will be present and participate in the convention ceremonies. Honorable Thomas Marshall, vice-president of the United States, Honorable Theodore Roosevelt, Governor Hiram Johnson of California, Governor Arthur N. Capper of Kansas, Honorable William Kettner, congressman; Honorable Lyman J. Gage, ex-secretary of the treasury, and many others of equal note will be heard from the rostrum during the convention meetings.

San Diego is particularly well situated scenically and climatically for the entertainment of a convention of this kind. Lying as it does beside the beautiful harbor of the San, within a few miles of snowy mountain ranges, fertile valleys and verdant fields, having a summer temperature that seldom runs above eighty-four or five or below seventy, just 14 miles from the international line that separates Mexico from the United States, and surrounded by bathing beaches, fishing grounds, and many interesting and historic points, it has a location that can scarcely be equaled, much less surpassed.

The committee having in charge the affairs of the convention have labored earnestly and carefully to provide amusement for the vast throngs who will attend. Entertainment ranging from "clam bakes" to "bull fights," mountain excursions into old Mexico, band and drill contests upon the grounds of the Panama-California Exposition, organ concerts by artists of international note at the mammoth Spreckels organ, the largest out-of-door organ in the world, parades and carnivals—all these are offered for the delectation of the visitors to the convention. The committee has also arranged with the hotels that there will be no increase in the price of accommodations during the convention. This feature alone will be greatly appreciated by all who attend. There will doubtless be thousands of visitors, apart from members of the lodge and their families, and these will be enabled to enjoy the many features provided for the convention visitors.

A baby girl was born yesterday morning to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Metje of Banning, at the W. E. L. Clement home in Nutwood. Mrs. Metje is a sister of Mrs. Clement and formerly lived in Orange. Mrs. Metje will remain here for the rest of the summer.

Bates Union High School bonds have been purchased from the Superior Bank of Sacramento County by Blythe, Water Company, San Francisco. The issue was $28,000 and the premium bid $767.

Miscellaneous Bond Information
The Hercules Powder Company will redeem on August 1st all of its outstanding 6 per cent ten-year income bonds at 102 and interest. Holders of these bonds have the privilege up to August 1st of exchanging in exchange for each $1000 bond nine shares of 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock of the company. Cash adjustment will be made of the accrued interest in the bonds surrendered and the proportion of the quarterly dividend on the stock to the date of exchange.

Municipal bonds which would be worth $750,000 if they were operative, will be burned on the evening of Friday, July 2, at 7:30 o'clock, in front of the city hall by City Clerk Harry B. Riley, of Long Beach. The burning of these bonds will not, however, formally open the city's Fourth of July celebration. The bond issues to be destroyed are those known as the municipal pier repair bonds issued by the Chamber of Commerce and business men of San Bernardino and directed by the City Council of that city. Preparations have been made for a bond issue of $175,000 for the purchase of a site for a city hall and the erection of a municipal building.

All Humanity is divided into two types—the Spender and the Investor.

The Spender, following his own inclination, lets his money slip through his fingers and never gets very far from the bottom of the ladder.

The Investor, having lived within his income, and by self-denial saved part of his earnings, is on the road to the top.

Which type is the most honorable? All of us have a moral duty to ourselves, our families and society to perform. A savings account in this bank is a sound investment because the principal is safe and the interest paid promptly. And one dollar will open an account. 4 per cent interest.

CHANGES IN STATE BANKING REGULATION

(From L. A. Financial News.)
Changes in the state banking law, looking to the inclusion of the state banks in the Federal Reserve system and broadening the scope of these financial institutions in several particulars, will go into effect on August 1st, following the signing of the amended act by the governor, says the Richmond Record-Herald. These changes were suggested by the state Superintendent of Banks, and have met the approval of the bankers' legislative committee.

Important among them is the authorization to commercial banks organized under state law to accept bills of exchange. This use of acceptances, which has characterized European banking was made a prominent feature of the Federal Reserve bank. It is now extended to the state banks. In this particular California follows in the steps of New York, where a similar law was recently enacted. It is explained that a bill of exchange becomes an "acceptance" when the drawee writes across the face the word "accepted," with the date, and the date when it shall become payable, together with his signature. Under the new law such acceptances will be handled by state banks as well as by the National banks, co-operating with the Federal Reserve.

Another change, which looks toward conformity to the Federal Reserve is incorporated in new provisions for reserves, making the requirements placed upon state banks equivalent to those exacted from member banks of the Federal Reserve. It is expected that these changes may be followed by steps toward including the state banks within the Federal Reserve system.

Another change in the law is aimed at preventing pyramiding the banks, or the organization of wildcat banks. It requires the consent of the superintendent of banks before stock subscription lists are circulated for the organization of new banks. Under the new section 67 of the act, savings banks are permitted for the first time in this state to handle commercial paper. This clause is as follows: "A savings bank may, under such conditions and regulations as the superintendent of banks may prescribe, discount or purchase commercial paper of the kind or character made eligible under the Federal Reserve act and then convert the same into cash or securities in exchange for the same."

Although several provisions of the new law look toward the inclusion of state banks in the Federal Reserve system, it is expressly stipulated that banks so doing will remain under the same supervision and regulation of the state banking officers and state laws. The ability to borrow on securities in exchange for money, and the right to issue currency, are not affected. Trust companies and state commercial and savings banks are affected by these changes, which were presented to the Legislature in Senate Bill 668. Twenty-nine amendments were made and three are added in the new law.

Protests Cut No Figure

The protests by land owners of Twicken, Grand and Sherman Island and the Union House district against the first assessment of the State Reclamation Board of California which seeks to raise $220,000 for administration purposes, were ignored by the State Reclamation Board Monday, the members unanimously deciding to endorse the assessment as prepared by the assessors. As a result, the assessment lists for the various counties were forwarded to the various county treasurers in a few days, and at the next meeting of the board, June 15, it will call in 50 per cent of the assessment, which becomes immediately due. The assessment affects fourteen counties of the Sacramento and San Joaquin district, comprising 1,750,000 acres.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

BELIEVE $3,000 CAN BE RAISED FOR DIKING RIVER

An effort is to be made to raise $3,000 by subscription at Anaheim for the purpose of diking the Santa Ana river above the new concrete bridge on the road between Olive and Anaheim.

This morning Oscar Renner and J. S. Howard, representing the Anaheim Board of Trade, appeared before the Board of Supervisors. They promised to make the effort to raise the money, and Howard said that he believed it could be done.

The visit of the Mother Colony committee followed the report that the supervisors propose to tear down the present wooden bridge across the Santa Ana river and use the lumber in building approaches to the new concrete bridge. It was declared at Anaheim that should the wooden bridge be torn down there would be a period of several weeks when traffic would be interfered with. The committee desired that some arrangement be made to prevent blocking the road.

It was explained to the committee that the county would probably save $1500 by using the old bridge. The discussion turned to the old, old story of the diking of the river. The fact that a committee from Anaheim had promised the supervisors that the river would be diked above the bridge is familiar. That a protection district was formed and abandoned is also down in history. That it will be necessary to dike the river in order to get the water under the bridge is apparent. It was suggested that Anaheim and vicinity ought to raise $3,000 to aid in the diking undertaking.

Judge Howard said that he believed that the sum could be raised, and that an effort would be made to raise it. He said he knew of two men who would contribute liberally to such a fund.

Want Street Lights

Another effort is to be made to put through a street lighting district at Buena Park. Today a new petition for the formation of the district was filed. Recently an election was held on the former petition, and the eyes got a bare majority. A contest was about to be inaugurated to break the proceedings on the ground that the original petition had non-residents of the district upon it. For that reason the proceedings were called off.

To Issue Bonds

In accordance with law, bonds are to be issued by Road Improvement District No. 1 for the payment of the costs of building the paved road between Brea and La Habra. The road is finished. July 16 has been set by the supervisors as the time for totaling up all costs and the settlement of the amount of the bonds to be issued.

E. R. Mauerhan was granted a petition to lay a pipe line in Walnut Colony tract.

50-Foot Accepted

This afternoon the Board of Supervisors by a vote of four to one accepted the recommendation of a majority of the Highway Commission for a 50-foot right-of-way for Hiatt street at La Habra, joining La Habra with the state highway to the north. Supervisor Struck and Commissioner Newland contended for a 60-foot right-of-way. Commissioner McFadden said that he preferred a 60-foot right, but that under the conditions he was in favor of accepting the 50-foot strip offered. Supervisor Schumacher strongly favored accepting the road. Struck voted no on Schumacher's motion to accept the majority report of the highway commission.

LAGUNA BEACH'S ART COLONY IS GROWING LARGER EVERY WEEK

Was Augmented Recently by Arrival of Symons and Betts

LAGUNA BEACH, July 7.—With the arrival here recently of Gardner Symons and Louis Betts, two painters of national reputation, the colony of artists at this popular resort was considerably augmented. These two painters, who spend most of their time in the East, will be here for the remainder of the summer, according to their present plans.

Gardner Symons is known by critics as one of the most forceful and virile landscape painters of America. Louis Betts, whose home is in Chicago, has no less a reputation as a painter of portraits.

Elmer Wachtel arrived here about a week ago, ostensibly for fishing purposes, though he brought his water color traps with him and is no doubt finding time from his fishing to turn out some of his highly artistic landscapes. Wachtel, one of the best known water colorists of the Southwest, makes his home near Los Angeles. He is undecided as to how long he will remain here.

The Misses White, whose landscape work is meeting with high favor, are also spending the summer here.

Frank Coburn, who is well known among the art connoisseurs of this country, left here today after a stay of several weeks.

F. W. Cuprien, Miss Anna Hills and Conway Griffith, all well known painters, make their homes here all year round and are also busily engaged in putting on canvas and paper their impressions of the charms of summer at this picturesque retreat.

Number of National Banks
On May 31 the total number of National Banks was 7613, with an authorized capital of $1,077,436,175 and a circulation outstanding of $731,186,969. Since the National Bank law was enacted there have been 10,743 banks organized, of which 3120 have discontinued business.

TESTING SCALES FOR WEIGHING SUGAR BEETS

Preparatory to the sugar beet campaign that will start in August, scales used in connection with the dumps and the sugar factories are being tested by George McPhee, county sealer of weights and measures. Each of the factories has from thirty to fifty scales of various kinds, and every one of them is to be put into prime condition and sealed, ready for the harvest.

McPhee gave notice to the various factories that he proposed to inspect their scales. In response to this notice he received word from the Santa Ana Co-operative Sugar Company that Blaylock, a scales expert with the Fairbanks-Morse Company, would test out the various scales used by the company.

Blaylock is now engaged in that work. Yesterday he and McPhee tested out some of the scales used at the factory, and the sealer put his seal upon the scales. Ten or twelve scales at the factory and about twenty-five scattered over the sugar beet growing territory will be examined for the Santa Ana Co-operative, and each one will be put into perfect order. After finishing with the Santa Ana Co-operative, McPhee will inspect the scales of the four other factories located in Orange county.

GOVERNMENT WINS BACK OIL ACREAGE

(From L. A. Financial News.)
Oil lands in acreage 6400 acres and in value $10,000,000, known as the Elk Hills, in Kern county, patents for which were issued the Southern Pacific railroad, have been ordered canceled and the land returned to the government. This is the decision of Judge Robert S. Bean, of the United States District Court of Portland, Oregon. The court finds:

First—That the lands in controversy were at the time of the proceedings resulting in the patent within a known and well recognized oil district, and had been previously returned by the United States Survey as oil-bearing lands.

Second—That they are rough, broken-up lands of no value for agricultural purposes or any other purpose than oil content.

The statements in the affidavit of Charles Eberlein that he caused the lands to be carefully examined by agents and employees of the company as to their mineral or agricultural character was and is untrue. This is admitted, says the court.

The court holds it clearly appears from the documentary evidence and from the Eberlein files that the lands in controversy were not within a known and well recognized oil district, and that the selections were made and the patent issued officers of the company in charge of the matter were conscious that the lands, if not actual, at least probable oil bearing, and that the selections were made and strenuously urged to patent for that reason and not because of their agricultural value. Nearly two months before the first selection list was filed, Eberlein wrote to Mr. Kruttschnitt, vice president of the company, saying he expected to tender a selection list covering the lands in the township in question, within a week or ten days, and asking that Chambers, the Washington attorney, be requested to give the matter special attention, to the end that the lands in question be covered by the proposed patent.

In the meantime, the court says, the Kern Trading and Oil Company was organized to take over the oil lands of the defendant railroad company and operating the lands the same as the fuel department. An instrument was prepared without the knowledge of Eberlein leasing to the oil company the lands belonging to the railroad company in the vicinity of and adjoining the lands in this dispute.
